

The University of Cambridge Department of East Asian Studies is pleased to announce the following lecture in its series of East Asian seminars.

This seminar starts at 5:00PM and will take place at Robinson College, Cambridge.

ALL ARE WELCOME

Annual Ra Jong-Yil Lecture
Finding the Legacy and a Vision for Modern Politics in the Korean Peninsula

Mrs Choo Mi-Ae, member of the 18th National Assembly, Republic of Korea
Friday, 5th November 2010, Robinson College

Ms. Choo Mi-Ae (BA Hanyang University, MA Yonsei University) is a member of the National Assembly of South Korea. She belongs to the Democratic Party and represents the district of Gwangjin-gu in Seoul. She began her career as a judge, serving on the District Courts of Chuncheon, Incheon, and Jeonju as well as the Gwangju High Court. She was first elected to the National Assembly in 1996 and has served on its Foreign Affairs and Unification Committee and as the chairperson of the Environment and Labor Committee. In 2003, she also served as a special envoy to the US on the North Korean Nuclear issue.

For further information contact:

Dr Michael Shin
Lecturer in Korean Studies
Robinson College
E-mail: mds71@cam.ac.uk

Website: www.ames.cam.ac.uk/news_events/deas_events.htm

Please note that the venue for the lecture is Robinson College and the day Friday. Regular ASC seminars take place 5 pm on Mondays at the Faculty of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies.