Korean Democracy in Crisis?

Chin Jungkwon studied Aesthetics at Seoul National University, and received a master's degree in Aesthetics from SNU. He continued studies in Germany, focusing on Wittgenstein's philosophy of language at the Free University of Berlin. As a professor of the Faculty of Liberal Arts at Dongyang University and the director of the Institute of Techno-aesthetics, he had been leading multidisciplinary studies connecting arts, game and design, before he resigned from professorship in 2020 for practicing political criticism.
