THE YEHUDA AMICHAH POETRY FESTIVAL

"Amichai was the poet whose books I still open most often, most often take on a journey, most often return to when the whole business of writing anything natural, real and satisfying, seems impossible." Ted Hughes

The Yehuda Amichai Poetry Festival addresses Amichai's influence on some contemporary poets. The readers will include: Hana, Yehuda's widow, David, his son, the Algerian born, Amichai prizewinner Erez Bitton, and Yvonne Green. All the readers will read a favourite poem by Yehuda followed by their own work. Hana, Yehuda's widow, will attend and participate in the Q & A. Both Dr Menna Abukhadra, an Israeli institute postdoctoral fellow at FAMES and Dr Hana Morgenstern, A Lecturer in Postcolonial and Middle Eastern Literatures at the Faculty of English, will chair the event and lead the discussion.
